2. What experience do you have that may contribute to the activities if you serve as a member?

I have an MS degree from Radford University in Communications Disorders with concentration in Education and Psychology. Besides working in public schools for approximately 15 years, I served as an Assistant Professor at RU, worked in homes for Head Start, worked in nursing homes and did private practice in communication rehabilitation. I also served as Carroll County Circuit Court Clerk for 23 years before my retirement. I served on many committees for the Circuit Court Clerk's Association during my tenure as Clerk. I served locally on the Human Rights Committee at the SWVA Training Center and the Twin County Chamber of Commerce Board. I currently am on the Board for the Hale-Wilkinson-Carter Home and serve as Chairman of the Trustees and the Church Council for the Woodlawn United Methodist Church.

3. What experience do you have that would assist this committee?

As a professional, I worked with all age ranges from infants to the geriatric population. I visited homes, counselled with parents and families with opportunities to observe families in part and in whole. I worked with other professionals to solve problems and set goals for improvement. I saw all levels of my community and worked directly or indirectly to help or to seek help when needed. I have experienced preparing budgets and maintaining a sensible balance based on need and resource availability. As a former employer, I have experience in taking applications for positions and how to interview potential employees. I also have experience in working with problematic situations in the work place and in volunteer groups.
